Sure. [REDACTED] name in the Amex profile in your account was spelled incorrectly (it had been spelled properly in [REDACTED] account which is what we used to use). When Laurie, from Amex, was booking the ticket last night, she referenced the profile for [REDACTED] name (even though she had the past ticket with correctly spelled name, she went with the way it was in profile. To add to this, this is the second time this has happened with [REDACTED] name! I had an issue with the ticket we just booked her to PB! They spelled her first name wrong, canceled the ticket and rebooked spelling first name correctly, then spelled her last name wrong! 3 tickets later, it was correct). Because they booked your 2 for 1 ticket with [REDACTED] name spelled incorrectly, they can't merely change the name. They must actually cancel the ticket and reissue. Because the first class cabin is so small and there are only 2 flights a day that have first class, the seats are in high demand. When our agent cancelled your 2 for 1 ticket, it is possible someone on the wait list picked up one of the first class seats you and [REDACTED] had, and by the time our agent was able to key in all the strokes it takes to purchase your tickets, one of the seats was gone. At this point a 2 for 1 deal cannot happen because the 2 for 1 deal is only available when purchasing 2 first class tickets.

> Intermediary Disclosure. Amex assists you in finding travel suppliers and making arrangements that meet your individual needs. We consider various factors in identifying travel suppliers to you and recommending specific itineraries. In this role, we are acting as an independent third party and not as a fiduciary. We want you to be aware that certain suppliers pay us commissions as well as incentives for reaching sales targets or other goals, and from time to time may also provide incentives to our travel counselors. Certain suppliers may also provide compensation to us for various marketing and administrative services that we perform for them, such as granting them access to our marketing channels, participating in marketing programs and supporting technology initiatives. In addition, we receive compensation from suppliers when customers use the American Express Card or other American Express products to pay for supplier products and services. From time to time we may enter into other business relationships with suppliers and these arrangements, including levels and types of compensation and incentives we receive, are subject to change. In identifying suppliers and recommending itineraries, we may consider a number of factors, including supplier availability and your preferences. The relationships we have with suppliers may also influence the suppliers we identify and the itineraries we recommend.
